

INTER-SYSTEM STUDENTS

Background

The Division will accept students who are resident of Roman Catholic Separate School Districts at any Division school provided that:

- Overcrowding does not thereby result;
- Students are not permitted to transfer from a Separate School within the Division area to a Division school during the school year except pursuant to the following procedures.

Procedures

1. The transfer of students into the Division from Separate School Boards within Division boundaries shall be accepted on an individual needs basis in the best interests of the student.
 - 1.1 In transfers of resident Holy Family Catholic Regional Division students, the two (2) Superintendents will determine the course of action.
 - 1.2 In transfers of resident Grande Prairie Catholic Regional Division students, the PRSD principals will communicate directly with the Principal from St. Thomas More to determine the course of action.
